

MEDIA RELEASE

ARTIST TALK BY AMIEL COURTIN-WILSON: IN CONVERSATION WITH EMMA CRIMMINGS

SATURDAY 26 SEPTEMBER 2015, 1PM

Join us at 1pm this Saturday the 26th of September for a floor talk by Amiel Courtin-Wilson about his current exhibition, The American Experiment. Courtin-Wilson will be joined in conversation by exhibition curator and Gertrude Contemporary Director Emma Crimmings. This program presents an opportunity to hear Courtin-Wilson speak directly to his work, and to explore the exhibition The American Experiment further.

The American Experiment is a new solo exhibition by Australian artist and filmmaker Amiel Courtin-Wilson. Representing a collection of expanded fragments assembled over seventeen years of filmmaking in the United States of America, the exhibition will comprise of moving-image installation, audio recordings and diagrammatic endeavors to find new graphic representations of cinematic structure.

Courtin-Wilson's exhibition forms part of a new interdisciplinary research focus at Gertrude Contemporary on the ever-mutable documentary form. Where previous interdisciplinary exhibitions have seen Studio Artist Claire Lambe collaborate with dancer and choreographer Atlanta Eke (for the exhibition Miss Universal), The American Experiment specifically explores the intersection of contemporary art and documentary film.

Amiel Courtin-Wilson is an acclaimed, multi-award winning filmmaker. Directing over twenty short and five feature length films, he has also collaborated with Opera Australia, Chunky Move, The Snuff Puppets, and The Black Lung Theatre Company. His video installation work has toured internationally and his films have screened at the National Gallery of Victoria, MONA, the Art Gallery of New South Wales, and the Australian Centre for the Moving Image. Courtin-Wilson's feature documentary Bastardy won the Best Documentary Jury Prize at the 2009 Film Critics Circle of Australia Awards (FCCA), best documentary at the ATOM Awards, and was nominated for three Australian Film Institute (AFI) awards. His dramatic feature film debut Hail premiered at the Venice Film Festival and won many international awards, including the Age Critics Award for best Australian feature at the Melbourne International Film Festival. His most recent film Ruin won the Special Jury Prize in the Orizzonti competition of the Venice Film Festival in 2013—the first Australian feature film in twenty years to win an award at Venice. Courtin-Wilson was recently commissioned to create a short film for the 70th Anniversary of the Venice Film Festival as part of a project called Venice Future Reloaded alongside directors Bernardo Bertolucci, Catherine Breillat, Monte Hellman, and Atom Egoyan. In 2014, he received the AFTRS Creative Fellowship grant for Aether, an upcoming feature film about iconic jazz pianist Cecil Taylor.

FOR ALL MEDIA ENQUIRIES, PLEASE CONTACT:
Helen Hughes, Curator Communications
Telephone +61 3 9419 3406
Email helen@gertrude.org.au
200 Gertrude Street Fitzroy VIC 3065 Australia
www.gertrude.org.au